Sing a large repertoire of songs. Know many rhymes, be able to talk about familiar books, and be able to tell a familiar story from memory remembering key factors. Develop their communication but may continue to have problems with irregular tenses and plurals. Use longer sentences of four to six words. Start a conversation with an adult or a friend and continue it for many turns. Use talk to organise themselves and their play	Recognise when they hear a new word and question it's meaning. Use new vocabulary through the day, not always in correct context. Articulate their ideas and thoughts in well-formed sentences. Connect one idea or action to another using a range of connectives.	Describe events in some detail. Use talk to help work out problems and organise thinking and activities, and to explain how things work and why they might happen. Develop social phrases. Use new vocabulary in different contexts.	Participate in small group, class and one-to-one discussions, offering their own ideas, using recently introduced vocabulary. Offer explanations for why things might happen, making use of recently introduced vocabulary from stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems when appropriate. Express their ideas and feelings about their experiences using full sentences, including use of past, present and future tenses and making use of conjunctions, with modelling and support from their teacher
